THE LAMRON OCE

VOLUME 30

OREGON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, MONMOUTH, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1953

NUMBER 19

Welcome Folks!

Dear Mom and Dad:

Today on the OCE campus we have planned an occasion just for you. It's traditional every year to have a Folks Festival and this year it is bigger and better than ever.

We have had cooperation between both students and faculty in planning it. You are invited to tour our campus with three service organizations as guides, Staff and Key, Collecto Coeds, and Wolf Knights. They will meet you when you register at the faculty lounge.

The luncheon is to be held at Todd hall where you will meet the co-chairmen, Barbara Calloway and Walter Burgess. Others you will be introduced to are: Roy E. Lieuallen, registrar and acting president of OCE. Joan Seavey, dean of women; and Virginia Kempston, director of dormitories. After the luncheon Dads' and Moms' meetings will be held giving you a chance to become acquainted with other parents.

A coffee hour with a fashion show is planned in Maple hall. College clothes for both the male and female students are to be featured. The theme is "Paper Doll."

The "Smoker" this year is for you both. It will provide a full hour of entertainment in the gym. Dinner is to be family-style at Todd hall. For off-campus students' parents, reservations can be made to eat at the dormitory if they wish.

The OCE-EOCE basketball game should be one of the best of this season. Eastern Oregon College of Education so far holds the lead in conference standings.

Theta Delta Phi and Sigma Epsilon Pi, our two honoraries, have planned a dance, "Paper Cut-Outs," after the game tonight to which you are invited. (35 cents stag and 50 cents per couple.) Music is being furnished by the campus dance band. It should be a grand time for all and I take this opportunity, on behalf of the students, to welcome you.

Yours,
WALDO WOLF,
OCE mascot.

To see the two so occupied has been a customary sight for many weeks. They are Walt Burgess and Barbara Calloway, co-chairmen for this Folks Festival, shown above planning for the many activities of the week-end. Both Walt and Barbara are seniors. Barbara is from Woodburn and Walt is from Jennings Lodge.

Miss Rislove Models

Miss Bradley Rislove is wearing a white organdy formal over aqua taffeta, topped by a clever embroidered design which she will model in the style show. The show will be held this afternoon (Saturday) in Maple hall at 3 p.m. Miss Rislove is a sophomore from Milwaukee.

OCE To Sponsor Tour Of Europe in Summer

The Oregon College of Education will sponsor another tour of Europe this summer. Visits to England, Scotland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Germany, Austria, Switzerland and France are scheduled. This will be an all-expense tour and will include attendance at a Shakespearean play at Stratford, a play and two operas in Salzburg.

The tour is open to teachers, students and anyone interested in a cultural tour. Five units of undergraduate credit may be received.

The leader of the group will be Florence W. Hutchinson, chairman of the music department of the college, who may be contacted for further information.

Freshmen Petition for New Vice-President

Any freshman class member may petition for the position of vice-president to replace Jim Beck who is no longer in school. Only one petition can be signed by each student and 10 names are required for each petition. Place all petitions in President Roger Ruthaford's P.O. box (343) by Thursday, February 26. Election will be held later.

Professor of Theology To Be Speaker Here

Dr. Carl F. H. Henry

Next week our campus will be host to Dr. Carl F. H. Henry from Fuller Seminary in Pasadena. At Tuesday's 11 o'clock assembly he will discuss "Modern Man and His Reversals."

Dr. Henry, who has his Ph.D. from Boston university, has written several books such as "Remaking the Modern Mind," "The Protestant Dilemma," and "Fifty Years of

"Years Ago" To Be Presented in March

"Years Ago," the comedy which is to be presented as the spring play on March 4 and 6, is to be presented in "arena style" in Maple hall. Tickets will go on sale Wednesday, February 25, and sale will continue until March 4. Due to the physical and psychological limitations inherent to this type of presentation, the seating will be limited and all tickets will be on sale in advance.

The play, an autobiographical comedy, will feature two complete casts, each to play one night.

The two casts are: Ruth, Muriel Horning and Edith Nielson; Mother, Susan Moberg and Louise Tittsworth; Father, Gary Burch and Frank Maxwell; Katherine, Holly Campbell and Rosalie McClintock; Anna, Peggy Allen and Margaret Getty; Fred, Boyd Long and Elmer Sankey; Mr. Bagley, Robert Jolma and Bill Poole; Miss Glavin, Elaine Irwin and Dorothy Walters; Mr. Sparrow, Milford Barnes and John Pizzuti.

Faculty Play To Be Presented in April

"You Can't Take It With You,"—that is the title of the three-act play to be presented by OCE faculty members on the tentative dates of April 16 and 18. A definite cast has not yet been selected. Last year's production of "Arsenic and Old Lace" was also a faculty play. Because this production is now only in the planning stage, further information about the cast and staff will be announced later.

Ankara, Turkey

Dear Students, Faculty & Friends:

This past week I visited Gazi Teachers Institute, which is roughly the equivalent of a two-year college normal school. I also visited the Etnik Teknik (boy's technical institute) in Ankara, which has also a program for the preparation of teachers for the technical institutes.

Very briefly, the school system here is a primary school (ilkokul), which is five grades, the orta (junior high school), which is three grades (or forms), the lycee (senior high school), which is now four years, making a 12 year program. Graduates of the primary school

THE RETURN OF OCE "VICTORY BELL"

These Portland State students push hard as they wheel the weighty Victory Bell up to Campbell hall. The bell was taken from Maple hall last month by Portland State college pranksters. PSC students returned it with good will and, with it, brought a small gold bell. The new bell will be an inter-school athletic trophy.

WELCOME, FOLKS!!!

For the past couple of weeks things have really been buzzing around here. The grass has been cut, the sidewalks swept, old portraits dusted and the "old bell" has been relocated in the "trophy room" in Maple hall.

The various committees have really gone all-out and what a gala week-end it promises to be with basketball games, dances, a fashion show, and numerous other activities.

All this is just for you and to say, "welcome, folks, glad to have you here with us."

Resume of Campus Organizations And Their Activities Is Presented

In an attempt to give parents knowledge of the organization activities which their sons and daughters have the opportunity to be a part of on the OCE campus, the Lamron features the following information about the various clubs on the campus.

Collecto Coeds

Collecto Coeds is a club organized to give service to the Oregon College of Education and to encourage interest and participation in campus activities. It helps in stressing school loyalty and standards throughout the school and the state, and it acts as a representative of the college at home and at school in the duty of a hostess at all times. It furthers co-operation between students, college personnel and campus organizations.

This term Collecto Coed members have sold concessions at games, ushered and handed out programs at games, participated in Freshman Week and Homecoming activities. They have also ushered at plays and organ concerts. They were co-sponsors of the Sadie Hawkins' dance, and have played records at various sport dances.

Arnold Arms' News

by Bud Long

Arnold Arms had another party in honor of the current engagement of Larry Dawson. The party was held at about midnight last Friday night. Because of the late hour, refreshments were not served. The main feature of the night was a cold water tubbing of Larry by a few of the second floor boys.

*****

Arnold Arms had two guests last Saturday night. Bob White and Casey Lake from Portland were here for the dance Saturday night and also spent the night.

*****

At 7:30 last Wednesday morning the echoing music of Tom Dick Harry at the piano was heard all through the house. In spite of the time it was enjoyed very much. It was something nice to wake up to for a change.

Meeting Held for Off-Campus Women

All off-campus women, excepting married students, are required to attend a meeting concerning off-campus residences on Tuesday, February 24, at 4 p.m. in room 212 of the Administration building.
Continuation of approval for off-campus residence will be contingent upon attendance at this meeting.
Roll will be taken and any necessary absence must be approved in advance by the Dean of Women.
Choir members are asked to check about a special meeting time for them.

NOTICE!

Those students who plan to complete requirements for the three or four-year curriculum or for junior certificates at the close of summer session, should call at the registrar's office and fill out necessary applications prior to February 27.

Students in Favor of Summer Grove Issue

The Grove staff has conducted a poll among students and faculty members who have purchased 1953 yearbooks, either in full or by down payment. The staff had a problem in that all layouts were required to be in the hands of the printers by March 15, over a week before the spring term begins, in order to have the published books here by June 1.
Members of the staff present at an early winter term meeting were unanimously in favor of postponing the deadline to include spring term activities, even though it would mean receiving the books after school ends. However, they decided to let Grove purchasers help to make the final decision.

Thus, the purpose of the poll was to learn if Grove purchasers, realizing that the Grove received in June could not include spring activities, would object to receiving their copies later in the early summer. They were asked to designate a preference.

One hundred and fifty-one purchasers were polled and of the 116 who responded 106 (91.4%) favored a complete book to be received in the early summer.

As a result of the poll which indicates the desire of the majority, and in view of the Grove staff's desire to publish a complete, and thus more valuable annual, the 1953 Grove will be mailed to its buyers in the summer.

All persons who have had pictures taken for the Grove and who have not yet returned the proofs, should do so immediately. The proof of the picture you would like placed in the Grove should be checked and placed in the box provided in the student post office.

Rabbi Gordon Answers Questions About Jews

Rabbi James I Gordon spoke to a group of OCE students and faculty members Tuesday, February 17. The assembly was held at 11 o'clock, the regular assembly hour.

In the introduction of his speech Rabbi Gordon expressed his feeling of "being right at home." The title of his topic was "What Jews Believe," and in an interesting manner he presented the customs, beliefs, and practices of the Jews.

During the last portion of the assembly questions were asked and answered in an informal discussion. The participation on the part of the audience seemed to indicate that they were very interested in the subject he talked about.

Annual Banquet Held For Phi Beta Alumni

The annual Phi Beta Sigma alumni banquet was held at Jessica Todd hall on Saturday, February 14 at 6:30 p.m. Earlier in the day, from 3 to 5 p.m., the guests were invited to a tea at the home of Miss Emma Henkle. Approximately 60 members and alumni attended the banquet.

The entertainment was supplied by the college quartet, piano numbers by John Davis, and a skit given by the pledges. The guest speakers were Mr. Roy E. Lieualen, whose topic was the Anderson Report, and Manfred Piontek, who spoke on the educational system in Western Germany.

Biology Projects

Now is the time to plan for spring term biology projects. Dr. E.F. Barrows has four 32" x 18 1/2" x 18 1/2" aquariums for tropical fish, planned exhibits for the library basement displays. Other aquariums and dry land containers and cages are at the disposal of the students.

to his writing, his lecturing experiences have taken him all over our country. Among his trips to Oregon have been visits to the University

Tells of Turk Schools

may enter, if they pass the very formidable examination hurdle and other requirements, either the orta, the technical institutes for boys or for girls, or may enter the so-called village institutes' six years program (starting this year). These village institutes prepare teachers for the primary village schools. This is one type of teacher training school.
There are 21 of these in various parts of Turkey.

The other type is the normal school. This school admits, upon passage of formidable exams and interviews, graduates of orta schools (junior high schools) and also has been admitting graduates of some primary schools. For graduates of orta, the program is three years, for graduates of primary schools, six years, as in the village institutes.
Entrance to Gazi and a similar school in Istanbul, is also based on examinations, etc., and requires graduation from Lycee or the normal schools or the village institutes.
These two are really higher normal schools, and prepare teachers largely for the village institutes, the regular normal schools, for Orta school, and in some cases for primary school instructors or supervisors. It is all quite complicated and quite formalized. The universities (at Ankara and Istanbul) prepare a few teachers for the Lycee, some for Orta, and also for the normal schools, village institutes and Gazi and Capa (Istanbul), especially in science, various social science fields, mathematics, etc.

One night a group of us had dinner in the dormitory at the normal school. The dining room was new and quite nice. Beside each student's place was a half-loaf of bread (which is by the way very good). The first course was soup, served to the students in a central kettle from which they helped themselves. Second course was a mixed meat and vegetable dish and students again helped themselves from a central kettle which served about six students. The third course was stewed apples, two of them in a syrupy solution, which was very good. At the head table, though, they served us individually. The Mudur (director) told me the food cost per day was about a lira per student or about 35 cents in our money.

The little villages (usually 200-600 people), the ones we saw, are something to behold. Narrow winding streets go through. The streets are used for walking. They are usually filled with men (very few women), goats, chickens, burros and cats. These all go in all directions when a car comes along, tooting its horn. The little burros are quite picturesque, with their saddle blankets and the man astride, hoofing it along at a pretty good clip.
Sometime, I'll describe their costumes a bit.

Cordially yours,

Roben J. Maaske

Wolves Face Mountaineers

Wolves' Hoop Squad, 1952-53 Edition

Coach Bob Livingston, for the second consecutive year, has kept his hoop proteges in the thick of the pennant fight down to the wire. Members of the 1952-53 basketball squad shown above with Livingston are (from left to right) Don McKenzie, Ron Rainsbury, Gordon Miller, Don Gillespie, Frank Grove,

Title Hopes Hinge On Tonight's Game

OCC STANDINGS

Team	W	L	Pct.	PF	PA
Eastern Oregon	7	2	.777	665	640
OCE	6	5	.545	770	706
Oregon Tech	4	6	.400	656	684
Portland State	2	6	.250	517	568

The Wolves saw their slim title chances slip a little farther away as they dropped a thriller to the league leading EOC quintet 66 to 62 last night. Bobby Frantz hit 18 and Toby Lewis 13 in the losing cause. Big Bob Adrian topped all scorers with 19 points. The Wolfpack must take tonight's contest to retain any hope of the league title.

A torrid last half rally by the visiting Mountaineers erased a 37-25 OCE halftime lead.

The big bad Wolves, minus Bob Bushnell down with the flu-bug, face their do-or-die test of the season in the two contests this week-end with Eastern Oregon College.

The elongated lads from La-Grande come into town with a full game advantage over the Wolfpack with a 6-2 mark as compared with the 6-4 boasted by OCE.

The Easterners by taking both games could clinch the toga. The Wolves by taking a couple could then fare no worse than a tie. A split would leave the tale to be told when the EOC squad is guest of Portland State at a later date.

The two battles will pit the abundance of height sported by the visitors against the superb speed and ball handling practiced by the local crew. Coach Bob Quinn can start a couple of pint-size 6-ft., 2-in. guards in freshman Ken Westenskow and sharp-shooter Jerry Poyser. He can then add a little dose of height in two of last year's all-conference boys, Lowell Kolbaba, 6-ft. 4, and Bob Adrian, 6-ft., 5. Larry Pryse, a mere 6-ft 3, rounds out the starting five.

Frank Grove, a terror on the backboard with his 6-ft. frame, and Howard Sullivan, back in good form after suffering a bruised heel in mid-season, hold down the in- under spots on Coach Bob Livingston's crew. Bill Palmquist, in for the ailing play-maker Bushnell, and Chuck Pinion are the diminutive starters out front. Bob Frantz, high scorer of the team, starts at the center spot. Frantz had a touch of the flu in the earlier part of the week. Sully, Palmquist and Bushnell (if he sees any action) will be playing their last games for the crimson and grey on the Monmouth maple court.

The Wolves, going into last night's game, sported the league's best defense, allowing their conference opponents 64 tallies per game. EOC tops the offensive picture, bagging 74.9 counters per contest.

Independents, Poole's Nab Intramural Wins

Independents notched an easy win in the first game Thursday night by galloping to a 72 to 25 victory over Arnold Arms. In the first few seconds Gary Burch tossed in a field goal to open the scoring rampage by the Independents and they were never threatened.

Ray "Mr. Rubber Legs" Nairn led the scoring parade with 18 counters but close at his heels were Bill Lofton and Gary Burch with 16 and 14 points, respectively. Dick Jones and Lawrence Miller scored eight apiece for the losers.

In the second game of the evening one of the roughest and toughest games of the league was played. Bill Poole's team won 37 to 22. In the first quarter West House outscored Poole's and at halftime the score was tied at 12-all. The fourth quarter told the tale with Poole's team pulling ahead and went on to win.

Glea Humphries led the winners with 10 points. All of Glea's tallies were scored in the second half of the game. Ed Montgomery, the scrappy little guard, led West House in the scoring column with 10 points also.

ster, Mary Magill, Millie DeVos, Jeanne Poole, Gen Poole and Shirley Carlo, guards.

Gene Lebold amassed a record-breaking total of 34 points in leading the Blivets to their fifth straight win without a loss Monday evening. The 83-36 win over Vets' Village kept the boys a bare half game above the Independents and the Mammy's squads.

Lebold's night's offering, probably the all-time high for intramural play at OCE, raised his season's total to 94 points in four games for a fancy 23.5 per contest average. Independents, with a 72-25 victory over the cellar-dwelling Arnold Arms quint and Mammy's, by virtue of a 47-40 nod over Howell House, still kept alive their hopes for the league's title. The two teams alone have assured themselves of berths in the post-season tourney.

The old men from the Village gave the Blivets a battle for first period and wound up on the short end of a 13-9 count at the buzzer. From then on it was all Blivets with Les DeHart adding 22 points to the cause. Dick Balch, John Pizzuti and Dan Heins all collected seven tallies apiece for the Villagers.

The Mammy's-HH clash was undecided down to the wire, with the victors coming from a 24-18 deficit to win. Ray Hubbard, with 17, and Harry Russell, with 13, led the victors. Emil Perkins bagged 13 to pace Howell House.
